Instructions

To get credit for a book, fill a review slip or upload your review on social media and tag #nobrunslibrary on Twitter or Instagram or #northbrunswicklibrary on Facebook. Also, write the title in a box on this bingo card that the book belongs in. (For example, don't write the title of a book in the "Read a mystery" box if the book is not a mystery.) Remember you can write a book's title only once on this card even if it can fit into more than one category, so if you read a historical fantasy romance like Lovely War by Julie Berry, you can write the title in the box for fantasy or for historical fiction or for romance, but not all three.

If you fill five boxes in a row horizontally, vertically, or diagonally, you get ten bonus tickets in end-of-summer raffle. This means that if you fill every box, you get 120 bonus tickets (ten for each of the five rows, ten for each of the five columns, and ten for each of the two diagonal paths).

Please place your board in the red YA summer reading box by Monday, August 11, 9:00 PM, in order to win prizes.

HINTS:

- The New York Times YA bestseller list is at <https://www.nytimes.com/books/best-sellers/young-adult-hardcover/>. This list is updated weekly.
- The "look for" suggestions in the boxes are meant to help you find books; they are not requirements. If you read a fantasy book that does not have "FSY" on the spine, you can still get credit for reading a fantasy book.
- Remember you can get credit for a title only if you complete a review slip or upload your review video; it is not enough simply to write down the title on the bingo card.
- E-books and audiobooks count.

If you have any questions or would like any suggestions, email agerber@northbrunswicklibrary.org. Happy reading!
